Dated : 2-6-10

Sub:- Extension in Seasonal Period of Rice Shelters - upto
31.7.10.

As per the reference received from the Joint Director, Civil Supplies & Consumer Affairs, Punjab Chandigarh vide his office memo No. RP-1(456)-2010/1385 dt. 27th May 2010 regarding the extension in seasonal period to Rice Shelters, the matter has been considered and it has been decided to extend the seasonal period and to allow willing Rice Shelter Consumers to run their Shelters upto 31.07.2010 instead of 31.5.2010. This extension of seasonal period shall be on the condition that the consumption of electricity during the month of June & July 2010 shall be billed at off-seasonal rates as applicable. The monthly minimum charges as applicable for Rice Shelters during seasonal period shall continue to be levied during the month of June & July 2010 as well. An undertaking from the consumers who wish to run or who have run their shelters during June & July 2010 shall also be had for billing the consumption for the month of June & July 2010 accordingly. No peak load exemption will be allowed for this period.

be applicable only to those Rice Shelters which had been working continuously upto 31st May, 2010 and desire to extend running of their shelters or have run their shelters during the month of June & July 2010. In case where Rice Shelter consumers had closed their operations after running 4½ months minimum period or more shall also have to pay monthly minimum charges for intervening disconnected period in case they have to run their Rice Shelter during June & July 2010. It is further clarified that no HMC is chargeable to allow above referred extension upto 31.7.2010, for the period from the start of the season and upto the date of RCO of individual millers to restart their season provided they have already paid HMC for minimum requirement of 4½ months upto 31.5.2010.

It is further informed that the billing to those Rice Shelters who have run their shelter for full year shall be charged as per CC 36/2005.

All Rice Shelter Consumers may also be apprised of the above instructions by the XENs/AEBs/AEs (Op.) in their areas, immediately.

This issues with the approval of competent authority.
